Presidents Message

Happy New Year Everyone,

First, I need to Thank everyone for their support of the Raindrop Decorative Painters Organization this last year. We could not do so much without you here. There is lots of wonderful comradery, super Teachers, Give-aways from our sponsor Pinecraft and the added bonus of books and patterns given freely by our membership. In 2025 we had a yearly membership drive of a gift certificate to Pinecraft of $25 along with a drawing of a free Seminar. We are working on something else this year that will also promote a larger membership. Crystal is working on it right now and will have it in the newsletter.

This year promises lots of "new" events including our two new LIVE Teachers, Tracy Moreau in May and Sandy McTier in September. These are 2-day seminars each. Choices to vote on will be forthcoming.

Tasks we accomplished in 2025 were our first Tea Party since before the Pandemic which had a turn out of more than 20 members. Then Our first Christmas Party in the Church with so much food, gifts, the tree, give-aways from Pinecraft, Helen Wyrich and others along with Emma giving a Mudding demo and a painting project decorating ornaments, not to mention Santa Claus and the fantastic Table Decorations Give-Away!! Everyone went home with a gift!! It was great!!!

Standing rules were revised to change the Sponsors Membership Fee to be the same as the Business Member Fee of $25 instead of $30. We also deleted teachers fees for retreats since this is obsolete for now. We added two committee chairs to the board for more stability in voting on major items. These are the Auditor and Membership Committee. (The vote passed, so the ByLaws will reflect this) and we added a New CD for a 6 month period. This was a long time coming. All votes pertaining to Raindrop business above were done privately by Survey Planet and are available by individual request. Yes, we had a great year with the membership involved in the changes!!

We do want to ask if you are interested in another Tea Party, please let us know. We will need help but would like you to let Terry Banton know and we will see what will work.

Please do not forget to Renew your membership so you can enjoy some of the events we have coming this year.

Again, I cannot thank you enough for all your participation, be it by vote or live in person. We are Growing!!

Vice Presidents Message

Happy Valentines Day!

Let's start the year right with friends, painting, and food!

Come join us for our February 7th Meeting. Door opens at 8:30 a.m. We will have our short meeting at 9:30 a.m., then Bobbie Reddington will be teaching us a darling piece. Our Potluck will be comfort food. Please see the class flyer to see what to bring. Please join us for a fun day!

I am looking forward to 2026 meetings and paint ins! We will have a lot of classes and events. Any ideas or teachers you would like to have please let me know. Have not been on the board for a few years.

Let's try to attend every meeting if you can. I know I always enjoy seeing my painting friends, sharing ideas, and catching up. As always it would be fun to bring guests to spread the love and fun of art in all forms and styles.

Thank you, Terry Banton

Merry Christmas

CRANBERRY ORANGE BREAD RECIPE

A lot of people requested this recipe from the Christmas Brunch.
Thank you Emma for bring this yummy dessert & Keith for making it!

This cranberry orange bread recipe combines the popular flavor of cranberry bread with the tart pop of citrus. Combined you have one of the absolute best and most moist cranberry orange bread recipes ever. It'll be one of your go-to cranberry bread recipes every year.

INGREDIENTS

14 cups fresh or frozen
cranberries cut in half
2 cups sugar + 1/4 cup to put on top of the cranberries
4 cups flour
2 tsp baking soda
1 1/2 tsp salt
2 Tbs grated orange rind
2/3 cup vegetable oil
2 eggs
1 cup orange juice
1 cup water
2 cups chopped pecans or walnuts

DIRECTIONS

1. Preheat your oven to 350 degrees and spray mini loaf pans with non-stick spray.
2. Slice cranberries in half. Top with 1/4 cup sugar then set aside.
3. Mix together flour, baking soda, and salt. Set aside.
4. In a separate bowl, combine 2 cups sugar, orange rind, and vegetable oil.
5. Add eggs and combine.
6. Slowly add flour mixture, orange juice, and water to sugar mixture.
7. Once all mixed together, add chopped nuts and cranberries.
8. Divide batter into 8 greased mini loaf pans
9. Bake at 350 degrees for 35-45 minutes.

Notes: Change it up! This recipe will make two large loaves – cook for 60-70 minutes or until a knife comes clean. If you want to make muffins, divide batter into 24 muffin tins and bake for 20-25 minutes.

Don't substitute the oil for something healthier. The oil is what makes this one of the most moist cranberry orange bread recipes ever. It's moist and absolutely delicious. If you do feel the need to make a substitution, substitute it with another oil – not applesauce.

Check the bread's doneness with a knife. Every oven cooks differently, so when you think the bread might be done – stick a butter knife straight into the bread and pull it out. If it comes out clean, the bread is done. If it comes out covered in gooey batter, let it cook for a few more minutes.

Let the cranberry bread cool before cutting. If you try to cut it while it's still hot, it'll likely crumble when you're cutting the bread. It still tastes good crumbly but won't hold together as well. If you just let it cool a little longer, the slices will stay together well.
